The Government remains firmly committed to countering the challenge posed by terorism. Towards this end, a multi-pronged strategy is beng pursued in close conjunction with the State Governments, which involves measures to check infiltration from across the borders, deployment of Central Security Forces in Areas prone to terrorist violence, continuous vigilance and strengthening of security arrangements in vulnerable areas and around vital installations, sharing of intelligence, strengthening of State Police Forces and up-gradation of their capabilities to deal with terrorist activities through the schemes of Police modernization and raising of India Reserve battalions, etc. Efforts are also being made to strengthen bilateral and multi-lateral cooperation at the international level with the aim of combating terrorism through arrangements for Mutual Legal Assistance, Extradition Treaties, exchange of information and intelligence, etc.

(d) and (e) The population of all religious communities in the North Eastern States has in 2001 census vis-a-vis the 1991 census. The increase in population cannot be attributed entirely to infiltration.

Steps to settle border disputes between Assam and its neighbouring states

913. KUMAR DEEPAK DAS: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the steps taken by Government towards the settlement of border disputes between Assam and neighbouring States viz.; Nagaland, Arunachal Pradesh, Meghalaya, etc.; and

(b) whether Government proposes to constitute a Commission for the same and to look into these matters within a particular time-frame?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) and (b) The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India vide their judgement dated 25.9.2006 has appointed a Local Commission for identification of boundaries between the States of Assam-Nagaland and Assam-Arunachal Pradesh.

In regard to boundary dispute between Assam-Meghalaya, the government has advised both the State Governments from time to time to resolve the issue through mutual understanding.

Deaths in jail custody

914. DR. GYAN PRAKASH PILANIA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) number of deaths which occurred in jails during last 10 years, where jail officials were suspected to be prima-facie guilty;

(b) how the above unnatural suspicious deaths in jail custody were disposed off and in how many First Information Reports (FIRs) were registered and guilty convicted;

(c) whether on average 21000 under trial prisoners remain in detention in jails in India, which results in overcrowding; and

(d) if so, whether Section 436(I) and 436A of Cr PC are not being followed?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) Since Prisons is a State subject as per list II of the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution, this data is not maintained centrally. However, as per the statistics compiled by National Crimes Record Bureau, details indicating the number of natural and unnatural deaths which occurred in jails during the last 10 years is given in Statement (See below).

(b) The information is not maintained centrally.